

April 17, 2023

The Honorable Joyce Beatty
2079 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congresswoman Beatty:

On behalf of Ohio's 227 credit unions and their 3.2 million members, the Ohio Credit Union League (OCUL) is writing to thank you for relaunching the Congressional Financial Literacy and Wealth Creation Caucus for the 118th Congress. Your decision to co-chair this critical endeavor highlights your commitment to ensuring all Americans have the necessary tools to build wealth and achieve financial strength.

Ohio credit unions join you in your efforts to ensure all Ohioans have the necessary tools to make informed financial decisions. Ohio credit unions are trusted partners for Ohioans' financial literacy needs and remain a dedicated and expert resource in their communities. OCUL further supports financial literacy efforts through financial education funding provided by the Ohio Credit Union Foundation. Ohio credit unions stand ready to help you and your colleagues achieve financial literacy gains through a daily dedication to one-on-one member and family financial counseling.

Through the 'people helping people' philosophy, credit unions remain committed to helping ensure more people, families, and communities achieve greater financial well-being. Thank you for your unwavering efforts to ensure financial prosperity and wealth-building are available to everyone. Please reach out to us should we be of any assistance to you and your office.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Paul L. Mercer".

Paul L. Mercer
President

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jared Weiser".

Jared Weiser
Director, Legislative Affairs